

Credit Suisse Asset Management invests in the UK, hiring a team of five headed by Anthony Leonard

Zurich, April 1, 2019 – Credit Suisse Asset Management Global Real Estate has strengthened its office in London with its hiring of Anthony Leonard as its Head of Real Estate UK.

Anthony started on March 25, 2019, and is in charge of a newly hired team tasked with steering Credit Suisse Asset Management's real estate expansion strategy in the UK.

Global Real Estate is currently invested in 18 properties spread across the UK in cities including London, Manchester, Leeds and Cardiff. "With strong investor demand for UK properties, having Anthony Leonard with his experience on our team will drive the business even further in the UK," said Martin Lamb, Head of Americas & UK, Credit Suisse Asset Management Global Real Estate.

Anthony Leonard has joined Global Real Estate from Hines, where he worked for almost 15 years, most recently as a board member. His strong track record includes a large number of property transactions and development projects in the office and retailing sectors in cities including Manchester, Glasgow, Edinburgh, Birmingham and London.

With London, Global Real Estate's presence has expanded to a seventh location alongside Zurich, Lausanne, Frankfurt, Milan, New York and Singapore.
