CREDIT SUISSE HIGH YIELD BOND FUND ANNOUNCES REDUCTION IN MONTHLY DIVIDEND RATE

New York, New York, March 10, 2017– The Board of Trustees of Credit Suisse High Yield Bond Fund (NYSE MKT: DHY), a closed-end investment company managed by Credit Suisse Asset Management, LLC, has determined that, in order to maintain a stable dividend for the near term and better align the dividend rate with the income earned on the portfolio, the Fund will reduce its dividend rate from $0.0230 per share to $0.0220 per share commencing with the dividend payable on April 25, 2017.

This revised rate results in an annualized yield on net asset value (as of March 3, 2017) of 9.46% and a yield on market price (as of the same date) of 9.26%. The new dividend rate will remain in effect until further notice.

Credit Suisse Asset Management, LLC would like to remind shareholders that a portion of the Fund's fiscal year 2017 dividend may be a return of capital and that such determination has not yet been made. The Fund's Board of Trustees periodically assesses the level of the Fund's monthly distributions for its continued appropriateness in light of the Fund's investment experience.
